Gnomes, Gnomes & more Gnomes

What is a gnome?(in folklore) one of a species of diminutive beings, usually described as shriveled little old men, that inhabit the interior of the earth and act as guardians of its treasures; troll. Well gnomes have inhabited 101 Mkt. this holiday season. We have all different color combinations, sizes, shapes you could possible image.

We hosted the Holly Jolly Market, November 8-10. We are amazed at the vendors' talents to take items and repurpose them into holiday decor. THANK YOU to Beth and Linda, the vendors & all who visited.

Congrats to the $100 Gift Baskets drawing winners, who found the secret spot in the maze:
 Cody Edman from Elk River, Cindy Rahn from Otsego, Hannah Hulinsky from Otsego, Anja Knudson from Zimmerman, Simon Bicek from Elk River and Nick Valerius (not pictured).

Whoville Christmas Tree

Last winter during spruce tip season, our employees competed in a friendly Whoville tree decorating contest. This year we are inviting you to join in a FUN Whoville Tree decorating class. This class is for the kids and kids-at-heart. We will help you assemble a bundle of greens to resemble the Grinch's iconic slightly bent Christmas tree. You will select from a variety of whimsical decorations to adorn your creative Whoville Christmas Tree. Come ring in the holiday season with style.

Congratulations to our florists, Gail & Shelly who participated in the MN State Florist Association Designer of the year competition at the Minnesota State Fair.

Both received blue ribbons and placed in the top 10.

Gail's designs placed her in the top six designers. She designed a wedding bouquet during a live competition with five other designers. Thanks to Len Bush Roses in Plymouth for their sponsorship over the years.

As always, keep us in mind for all your holiday floral needs.

"Make your Holidays beautiful!"
